Andrew Swift

Luke O'Shea

Duncan Toombs

Andy Toombs

Andrew Swift's success isn't luck – it's built through relentless effort behind the scenes. From flipping burgers to sold-out theatres, the multi-award-winning Australian country artist has played the long game. His fourth album, Lucky Stars (2025), blends gritty guitar-synth soundscapes with heartfelt evolution: softer glows of home, love, and fatherhood. With 4 ARIA #1s, 3 CMAA Golden Guitars (incl. 2023 Male Artist), and boundary-pushing production, Swift proves hard work creates "lucky" lives.

Singer/songwriter, Luke O'Shea, is a 17 times Golden Guitar winner whose songs carry on the proud and ancient tradition of singing up this remarkable country of ours. Drawing inspiration from history, the humorous and the heartbreaking, O'Shea crafts and delivers his songs to connect with his audiences on a surprisingly deep level. Twice named Australian Independent Artist of the Year, with 9 studio albums, and recently inducted into the Galaxy of Stars, Luke's larrikin sense of humour and powerful performances make him one of country music's most decorated figures.

When Duncan walks on stage, he takes his whole heart with him. There's a shared connection at his concerts that brings fans back again and again. Duncan recently featured on Channel 7's hit show THE VOICE and won over the hearts of millions of Australians with his powerful and heartfelt vocals. With his debut ARIA #1 album, Steel on Steel, well into millions of streams, this highly awarded filmmaker and guitarist/backup singer to the stars has proven his worth to stand amongst the world's biggest & brightest artists.

Andy Toombs is an outstanding singer/bass player/guitarist. Originally from Toowoomba, Andy is currently based in the Northern Territory, having spent many years travelling and touring alongside some of Australia's most respected music performers, including Kasey Chambers, Dave Gleeson (lead singer with The Screaming Jets) and Troy Cassar-Daley. Andy, and his brother, Duncan, will be providing outstanding lead guitar, bass guitar and back-up vocals for our other exclusive country music artists.
