Darren Coggan

Darren Coggan is one of Australia's most enduring and versatile performers. He has built a career on storytelling – weaving fascinating and perceptive tales through his songs. Darren has won a swag of Golden Guitars, and the coveted Toyota Star Maker award, in Tamworth. Beyond his recording career, he has had starring roles in major productions like Happy Days, Grease, and Shout, to on-screen appearances in All Saints and his ongoing role as a presenter on Channel 7's Sydney Weekender. His touring productions celebrating the songbooks of Glen Campbell, John Denver, James Taylor and his critically acclaimed portrait of Cat Stevens have inspired audiences in the grandest theatres across the globe, including sell out seasons at the Sydney Opera House Concert Hall, Glasgow Royal Concert Hall, and Liverpool Philharmonic.

"Coggan's musical story-telling is outstanding, as is his singing and playing." – SUNDAY HERALD SUN

"Coggan has a fresh, powerful, expressive voice and he just oozed style." – THE AUSTRALIAN

Debbie & Anita Parry.

Debbie & Anita Parry are a mum & daughter country bluegrass duo. Debbie has been singing since the age of 10 and has toured with many well-known Australian country music artists, including Eric Bogle, Jimmie Little, Buddy Williams, Rick and Thel, Owen & Ian Blundell, The Howie Brothers, & Tommy Emmanuel. She's a prolific songwriter, having written over 2,000 songs (one of her songs was recorded by John Denver). In 2013 she was inducted into the Hands of Fame, in Tamworth. In 2024 she was inducted into the Tasmanian Country Music Hall of Fame. Debbie's love of traditional country bluegrass music rubbed off on her very talented daughter, Anita, who has shared the stage with her mum since she was 7 years old. Besides doing amazing vocal harmonies with her mum, Anita sings solo and plays mandolin and guitar. Anita has recorded her own album and has also recorded with her brother, Luke.
