MUSIC TOUR OF Victoria & Canberra

including the Mountaingrass Music Festival, in Bright

Join Wayne Horsburgh for an experience you will never forget. This is a fabulous tour, visiting many of Australia's most iconic sites and most important museums, art galleries, etc., to see many of the nation's most revered historic & cultural 'treasures'. A highlight of the tour will be the Mountaingrass Festival, in the town of Bright, in north-eastern Victoria's High Country. The Mountaingrass Festival is Australasia's premier bluegrass and old time music festival, featuring outstanding Australian and overseas acts. In addition to the Mountaingrass Festival the tour includes many other musical (& bush poetry) highlights, in Benalla, Wangaratta, Corryong, Tumblong, Gundagai, & Canberra.

DAY 1 Thursday November 13, 2025 Melbourne/Wangaratta

Morning: Depart Melbourne and travel to Wangaratta. On the way visit singer Wayne Horsburgh's home, in Benalla, for morning tea. See Wayne's excellent 'museum', with all the memorabilia he has collected during his outstanding career in Australia and the U.S. Wayne will sing us a few songs and join the rest of the tour as the host. We will then visit the Benalla Rose Gardens, to see the statue/sculpture of Sir Edward ('Weary') Dunlop, famous WW2 soldier/doctor/prisoner-of-war. Then, in Glenrowan, visit the Ned Kelly siege site. This is where Ned, dressed in a helmet and suit of armour made from ploughs, made his famous 'last stand', on 28th June 1880. Visit the excellent Ned Kelly Museum & Homestead. We then visit Greta Cemetery, where Ned Kelly, his mother, and his sister are buried. On arrival in Wangaratta enjoy a short panoramic coach tour of the town before checking into our accommodation. Evening: Commencement of Tour Dinner at the historic Vine Hotel, including entertainment by local duo, Kate Cole & Clive Brooker (lovely vocal harmonies). Overnight: Parkview Motor Inn, Wangaratta. (MorningTea;D)

DAY 2 Friday November 14, 2025 Bright

Today we travel to the town of Bright, in north-eastern Victoria. Morning: Visit Beechworth, one of Australia's finest historic gold-mining towns. Visit the impressive Beechworth Historic Courthouse, where Ned Kelly had his Pre-Committal Trial. You will then have free time in Beechworth. You may like to visit Beechworth's Burke Museum (an excellent regional museum), or the Old Beechworth Gaol (Ned Kelly spent 2 years of his life there). Both of these visits, 'optional'. Early afternoon: Visit Yackandandah.....one of Australia's prettiest historic villages. Late afternoon: Arrive in Bright. Register for the Mountaingrass Festival & check into our accommodation. Evening: Attend our first Mountaingrass concert, featuring several of the festival's outstanding bluegrass and old time music acts. Overnight: Riverbank Park Motel, Bright. (B)

Bright

DAY 3 Saturday November 15, 2025 Bright

Morning: Enjoy a coach tour to the village of Mt Beauty, which lies at the foot of Victoria's highest mountain – Mt Bogong. The drive to Mt Beauty features amazing alpine scenery. We will visit the Mt Beauty Visitor Information Centre, which includes an excellent local museum. Afternoon: Back in Bright, enjoy the colourful Mountaingrass Festival, including an afternoon concert. Evening: Enjoy an evening Mountaingrass concert, featuring several of the festival's outstanding bluegrass and old time music acts. (B)

DAY 4 Sunday November 16, 2025 Bright

Morning: Enjoy an early morning coach tour to Harrietville, an alpine village at the foot of Mt Feathertop, in Victoria's High Country. Spectacular scenery on the 25 km drive from Bright to Harrietville. On our way back to Bright we will visit the excellent Nightingale Bros. fruit shed/shop, at Wandiligong. After returning to Bright you may like to attend the festival's mid-morning gospel concert. Afternoon: Enjoy the Mountaingrass Festival, including an afternoon concert. Evening: Enjoy the festival's final concert, featuring several of the festival's outstanding bluegrass and old time music acts. ### DAY 5 Monday November 17, 2025 Corryong

Travel to Corryong, in north-eastern Victoria. On the way visit the town of Tallangatta, where we will see the recently unveiled sculpture of Sandy, the war-horse (the only one – of approx. 145,000 Australian WW1 war-horses – to return to Australia). On arrival in the High Country town of Corryong we visit the Man from Snowy River Museum. This excellent museum contains items and information relating to Jack Riley (almost certainly the main person Banjo Paterson's famous poem, The Man from Snowy River, is based on). The museum also houses Jim Simpson's Rug. This amazing 'Map of Australia' rug was knitted by local, Jim Simpson, whilst a prisoner of war, in Germany, during WW2. Evening: After dinner, at our hotel, enjoy an informal performance by Wayne Horsburgh. Local bush poet, Maurie Foun, will also recite some bush poetry, including, of course, Banjo Paterson's The Man From Snowy River. Overnight: Corryong Hotel Motel. (B)

Mountaingrass Festival

The Mountaingrass Festival is Australasia's premier bluegrass and old-time string band music festival. Mountaingrass features concerts of bluegrass, old-time string band, traditional country and gospel music, along with instrumental workshops and numerous picking sessions. It is an inclusive event, so attendees are encouraged to participate in the workshops, picking sessions, and slow jam sessions. Attendees are also encouraged to perform on the 'blackboard' stages. So, if you are a player, bring along your fiddle, guitar, banjo, mandolin, dobro, & double bass, and join in! The Music Tour of Victoria & Canberra will include Weekend tickets, which include admission to all Festival events, including concerts and workshops.

Wayne Horsburgh

is one of Australia's most successful country music entertainers. Influenced by Slim Whitman and Frank Ifield, his style of yodelling is a real crowd pleaser. Originally from Benalla, Victoria, Wayne moved to Sydney in 1979 to expand his music career and also tour the world. For 25 years Wayne spent part of each year in the USA, sharing stages at Festivals and Fairs with some of country music's biggest stars, including Merle Haggard, The Statler Brothers, and Mickey Gilley. Wayne is now back living in Benalla, and he is looking forward to being host, on the 2025 Victoria & Canberra Music Tour, having the tour group visit his 'museum', and performing for the tour group.

Owen Blundell

is one of Australia's most talented country music artists. He is an outstanding singer, comedian, yodeller, and songwriter. He is an excellent impersonator, including an excellent impersonation of Frank Spencer (from the TV series Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em). Owen has released many successful albums, has won many songwriting awards, and has been nominated for Male Vocal of the Year, in Tamworth, five times. Also, he is well known as one of the members of The Gunbarrel Highwaymen (along with Terry Gordon and Reg Poole). Owen runs a very successful 'music' pub... the Tumblong Tavern, near Gundagai.

Kate Cole & Clive Brooker

are an acoustic country/folk duo, from Wangaratta. Kate is a multi-instrumentalist (guitar/button accordion/mandolin). Clive plays guitar and ukulele. Kate has a lovely Emmylou Harris type voice. Together Kate and Clive have a great vocal harmony sound. They sing songs ranging from country/folk to The Beatles songs, and classics, such as Don't Fence Me In. Kate and Clive are looking forward to entertaining the Music Tour of Victoria & Canberra tour group, at the Vine Hotel, on Thursday evening November 13, 2025.

Zackerbilks Jazz Band

Zackerbilks is one of Canberra's most outstanding jazz bands. An 8 piece band, Zackerbilks play very entertaining traditional Dixieland style jazz... a mixture of instrumental and vocal numbers. The band includes trumpeter, Zach Raffan, Miriam Miles-Read (banjo-uke & vocals), as well as two clarinets, trombone, piano, double bass, & drums. Zackerbilks play raucous, high-energy tunes, mainly from the 1900s to the 1940s. Their music is sure to get your feet moving! Band members wear colourful 1920s style outfits on stage. Zackerbilks will perform for us at our End of Tour Dinner on Thursday evening, November 20.

DAY 6 Tuesday November 18, 2025

Canberra

Travel to Canberra, via Khancoban, Tumbarumba, Tumblong and Gundagai. In Khancoban we will see the spillway, at Khancoban Dam, and visit The Pickled Parrot Café, which has excellent coffee and a diorama pertaining to the Snowy Mountains Hydro Electric Scheme. Wayne Horsburgh will lead us in singing the great Smoky Dawson song, In the Days of Old Khancoban. Lunch at the Tumblong Tavern, including a performance by the publican, outstanding musician/entertainer, Owen Blundell. On arrival in Gundagai enjoy a short panoramic tour of the town, including a visit to the iconic Dog on the Tuckerbox monument. We will sing Along the Road to Gundagai and Where the Dog Sits on the Tuckerbox. Afternoon: Arrive in Canberra, an impressive city built around beautiful Lake Burley Griffin. Canberra features many of Australia's most important public buildings, museums, and art galleries. On arrival, enjoy a sightseeing coach tour of Canberra. Evening: Dinner at one of Canberra's excellent clubs. Overnight: Pavillion on Northbourne Hotel, Canberra. (B,L)

DAY 7 Wednesday November 19, 2025

Canberra

Today we visit four of Canberra's most outstanding attractions. At the National Gallery of Australia, see some of Australia's most iconic paintings, including the series of Ned Kelly paintings, by Sidney Nolan, and The Drover's Wife, by Russell Drysdale. At the National Museum of Australia, see hundreds of fascinating items, including Azaria Chamberlain's clothes, Burke's leather water bottle (Burke & Wills Expedition, 1860-61), and a beautiful Essington Lewis Holden (1949 Holden car). Enjoy a guided tour of Parliament House. See one of Australia's most iconic paintings, The Big Picture, by Tom Roberts (1903), which depicts the first sitting of the Australian Parliament, at the Royal Exhibition Building, Melbourne, in 1901. We will then visit Old Parliament House, where we will enjoy a guided tour. Evening: Dinner at another of Canberra's excellent clubs. After dinner enjoy a performance by Wayne Horsburgh, including an informal music session/singalong with the tour group. Please bring your instruments and voices and join in! (B)

DAY 8 Thursday November 20, 2025

Canberra

Morning: Visit the Australian War Memorial. See one of the original Landing Craft that took the ANZACs ashore, at Gallipoli. (complete with bullet holes). Afternoon: Free time. Evening: Enjoy an End-of-Tour Dinner, including entertainment by Zackerbilks – one of Canberra's top jazz bands. (B,D)

DAY 9 Friday November 21, 2025

Departure

Morning: Transfer to Canberra Airport for your flight home. Note: If we charter a coach from Melbourne, for the tour, it may be possible for tour group members who live in Melbourne, or along the Hume Highway between Canberra and Melbourne, to travel home on the coach. Please discuss this with Travelrite. (B)
